Election of Trustees.

The election held last Saturday for the election of school Trustees was quiet and resulted in the re-election of the old board, L. T. Chiles, H. R. French, Owen Laughlin and T. J. Biggins and Dr. R. Q. Drake, an excellent board.

I have put up a grist mill at Grassy Lick with all the latest improvements making the best meal and will do custom grinding, beginning Saturday at 6 o'clock in the morning.

JOHN PEEGS.

Jim Williamsism.

The Courier-Journal isn't in a good humor about the unseating of the regular delegation from the 48th Legislative District, and to tell the truth, few, even among the extreme silverites, can blame it for bitterly resenting the outrage. So far as we have talked with the Montgomery county delegation we have not found a single man who has not expressed regret for this act on the part of the Lexington Convention.

The Courier-Journal says:

"No more shameless and execrable outrage was ever perpetrated in politics than the expulsion by the Lexington convention of the regular delegation from the Forty-eighth District, comprising the Sixth and Seventh Wards of Louisville, and the admission in their stead of the crowd drummed up by the notorious Jim Williams.

"It was an outrage to the like of which a Democratic convention in Kentucky never before descended.

"It was an outrage the equal of which would be hard to recall in all the course of disreputable and unscrupulous 'practical politics' in either party.

"It was an outrage to which it would be probably useless to seek a parallel

There were about 300 of them there to vote for a sound money delegation, and there is not one of them who does not know that every pretension that the silverites had anything approaching a majority is preposterously false.

"It was perfectly patent that beyond about a dozen silverites who were considered reputable citizens of the district, the Williams gang was made up of less than a hundred hoodlums raked up by Williams and his man Gray from the rat holes of the town, fully twenty or thirty of whom left the hall before Williams attempted to put his programme through, and most of whom were paid off in a saloon at 25 cents a head after the convention adjourned. Williams' little gang was so weak that not one of them asked a division, and after Williams had tried in vain to usurp the powers of Chairman Buchanan and rush a snap delegation through, he stood at his corner of the platform shouting incessantly to his crowd to 'Howl 'em down!' but there were not enough of them to make a respectable chorus to Williams' yawn and when he went through the form of putting his slate through after the adjournment of the convention there were not two dozen men who participated in the farce.

Death of John R. Blount.

Mr. John R. Blount died at his late residence near Grassy Lick on last Saturday, the 6th instant, from flux, in the 69th year of his age. He was born in Nicholas county October 24, 1827, and moved to this county in December, 1873. January 20, 1850, he was married to Miss Louisa Irvine, who, with two children, Frank H. and John H., survive him. They had four children. W. K. died January 26, 1884, and Mrs. Mary L. Shanklin died August 23, 1889.

Mr. Blount was a successful farmer and in his political, religious and business life as well worked and acted according to a practical theory. He had always been a Democrat and was a strict adherent to party principles. He became a member of the Baptist church when quite young and had been a reader of the State religious journal, the Western Recorder, for more than forty years. His funeral was preached Sunday afternoon at the Baptist church, this city, by Rev. Everett Gill, and was buried in Macphelah cemetery. The wife in declining years, children and grandchildren have the sympathy of their host of friends.

Excursion to Natural Bridge to-morrow.

Chief of Police Wilson Assaulted.

On Saturday night several of our young men, among them Chief of Police Charles T. Wilson, donned their linen suits and boarded the 9:35 train for Olympia, intending to spend Sunday at Olympia Springs. On the train a man was so boisterous that the conductor called Wilson, whom he knew to be an officer, to his aid and put the man off. Two others who were with the fellow, promised to behave themselves if allowed to remain on the train, and this being all the conductor desired, they were allowed to ride to their homes at Olympia. When the train had pulled up at Olympia, one of the men, Pergram, picked up a rock and threw it at the conductor. The rock passed through the train. This offense constituting a felony the conductor called on Wilson to arrest the offender. Wilson walked up to his man and informed him he was his (Wilson's) prisoner. Pergram did not think so and showed fight. Wilson thought his man only about his equal, physically, and proceeded to whip him into submission. It was a pretty tough conflict, Pergram, so Wilson says, putting up a mighty good fight. At this stage a man named Thomas ran up with a fence picket and began belaboring Wilson over the head and back. This was more than Wilson could stand and he reached for his pistol, only to find that he had dropped it in the scuffle. When Pergram and Thomas saw Wilson go for his gun, they left and stood not on the order of their going. The boys who had accompanied Wilson up to Olympia knowing that he would shoot and seeing the fellow belaboring him thought a killing the next thing in order and did not stay to see what might happen. Fortunately for all concerned the officers pistol was not at hand. Wilson, who is himself as brave as the bravest, rather admired the pluck of Pergram and would willingly have submitted to a good pounding from him if he was not able to best his man in a fair fight, was thoroughly angry when the man Thomas attacked him in so cowardly a manner from behind, and did his best to find a gun, his intention being to arrest the fellows at every hazard.

The two men, Pergram and Thomas, were arrested and will have their trial to-day. Chief Wilson was not much hurt, though some of the boys who were with him got scared and telegraphed his friends here he was dangerously hurt. Mr. Wilson is one of the best and most quiet and gentlemanly police officials we know. The most that can be said against him is, that utterly fearless, he takes too many chances with desperadoes.

A woman's headache may come from several causes. She may have a headache arising from nervousness, or from digestive disturbances. Nine cases in ten, her headaches come from disorders peculiar to her sex. It may show itself in the symptoms which are characteristic of a dozen disorders. Thousands of times women have been treated for disorders. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription was compounded for the sole purpose of relieving womankind of these ills and pains. Thousands of women have testified that after taking treatment from several physicians without benefit, the "Favorite Prescription" cured them completely and quickly. It has been used for over thirty years, and has an unbroken record of success. The woman who hesitates is invited to send 21 one-cent stamps to cover only the cost of mailing a copy of Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, which contains plain, clear information about all of the organs of the human body and their functions.

More

Curative power is contained in Hood's Sarsaparilla than in any other similar preparation. It costs the proprietor and manufacture more. It costs the jobber more and it is worth more to the consumer. More skill is required in its preparation and it combines more remedial qualities than of any other medicine. Consequently it has a record of more cures and its sales are more than that of any other preparation. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best medicine to buy because it is an honest medicine and thousands of testimonials prove that it does actually and permanently cure disease.

The Evergreen Baptist Church will be dedicated next Sunday afternoon. Rev. Everett Gill of the First Baptist church will preach the sermon at 3 o'clock. Our colored friends deserve credit for the promptness in building their new house of worship. It is a handsome frame structure of modern style and will seat about 350 people.

this side the infamous era of "Reconstruction" in the South.

"It was an outrage which every intelligent man on the Jim Williams delegation, if he was present at the Music Hall convention, knows was a base wrong upon the majority of that convention.

"It was an outrage whose odium every man who accepted a seat of the expelled delegation must share, and the sharing of which would make any man of sensibility hang his head in the company of the decent and honorable.

"It was an outrage which fastened a stigma upon every partisan buccaneer and madman who voted to perpetrate it upon the Democrats of Louisville.

"The Music Hall convention, whose representatives were thus thrown out of the State Convention, was the finest body of men ever before assembled in a political primary in this city. No finer body ever assembled anywhere.

"The Sixth and Seventh Wards of Louisville cannot be surpassed for intelligence, cultivation, substantial worth and sterling citizenship by any similar district in America, and the very best manufacturers, bankers, workingmen, physicians, lawyers—turned out to Music Hall Convention.

testimony offered by either side. It is written from actual observation at the time, and there is not a fact alleged in it which three hundred of the best citizens of Louisville do not know to be true.

"There was no shadow of ground for a contest in any district in this county—least of all in the Forty-eighth district. That district was selected for disfranchisement in the State Convention because it is the stronghold of sound money Democracy and the home of Tony Carroll, whom the free silver bolters from the last convention had not been able to seduce or bully.

Perfect Wisdom

Would give us perfect health. Because men and women are perfectly wise, they must take medicine to keep themselves perfectly healthy. Pure, rich blood is the basis of good health. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the One True Blood Purifier. It gives good health because it builds up the foundation—pure blood.

Hood's Pills are purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, always reliable and beneficial.

A Chance to Make Money.

I have berries, grapes and peaches, a year old, fresh as when picked. I use the California Cold process, do not heat or seal the fruit, just put it up cold, keeps perfectly fresh and costs almost nothing; can put up a bushel in ten minutes. Last week I sold directions to over 120 families; anyone will pay a dollar for directions when they see the beautiful samples of fruit. As there are many people poor like myself, I consider it my duty to give my experience to such, and feel confident any one can make one or two hundred dollars round home in a few days. I will mail sample of fruit and complete directions, to any of your readers, for eighteen two-cent stamps, which is only the actual cost of the samples, postage, etc., to me.
